

California Health Care Programs - 2012

Serving Low to Moderate Income Families

Several low-cost, subsidized health care programs for children are available to low to moderate income families. Most programs use the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) chart below in determining financial eligibility. To see if your children are eligible contact the health program or get help from a certified application assistant listed on the back of this flyer.

Varios programas de cuidado de salud de bajos costos para niños son disponibles para familias de ingresos bajos a moderados. La mayoría de estos programas siguen el guía de los ingresos (Federal Poverty Guidelines o FPG) para determinar elegibilidad. Para ver si sus niños son elegibles, llame el programa de salud o obtenga ayuda de un asistente de aplicaciones en la lista al otro lado.

Access for Infants and Mothers (AIM): 1.800.433.2611 <http://www.aim.ca.gov>

Access for Infants and Mothers (AIM) provides health coverage for pregnant women and their children. The program is geared towards pregnant women not over 30 weeks pregnant at the time of application. The program also provides health insurance for the baby for two years. Family income must fall between 200% and 300% FPG.

CaliforniaKids: 1.818.755.9700 <http://www.californiakids.org/>

CaliforniaKids' provides comprehensive preventive and primary health care services to children ages 2 through 18 who are not eligible for government-sponsored health care programs and whose parents cannot afford the high-cost of private medical insurance.

Kaiser Child Health Plan: 1.800.255.5053

Open to Northern California residents. Eligible children are under 19 years of age (birth through age 18); not currently insured; not eligible for public health care coverage such as Medi-Cal or Healthy Families; not eligible for health care coverage that is paid for, in any part, by an employer; and family income no more than 300% of FPG.

Healthy Families: 1.800.880.5305 <http://www.healthyfamilies.ca.gov>

Healthy Families is an insurance program that provides low-cost health insurance for children. With Healthy Families, a family pays a small monthly premium for medical, vision and dental insurance for their children. This program serves low to moderate income, uninsured children ages 0 to 19 who are not eligible for no share of cost Medi-Cal. Income limit is 250% of FPG.

Placer County CHDP: 1.800.829.7199 ext. 3620 or 530.886.3620

www.placer.ca.gov/Departments/hhs/community_health/cms/CHDP.aspx

CHDP provides well child exams for children and youth with Medi-Cal insurance ages 0 to 21 and low-income youth to age 19 years (family income is at or below 200% of FPG). Children and youth without insurance may be pre-enrolled into temporary full coverage Medi-Cal through the "Gateway" at the time of the exam.

Medi-Cal - Placer County Human Services: 530.889.7610 www.placer.ca.gov/Departments/hhs/public_assistance/MediCAL.aspx

Medi-Cal is the State of California's program to provide medical coverage to low-income state residents. It offers medical, dental, vision and mental health care at little or no-cost, or low-cost to eligible families.

Cover the Kids: 1.866.850.4321 <http://www.coverthekids.com/>

Referrals to local resources that provide application and technical assistance to families and individuals applying for the above health programs.
